The Grosvenor House Royal Blend

An exquisite blend of robust Assam and bright Ceylon makes this a truly elegant tea

Afternoon Tea

Revitalising blend of Kenyan, Assam and Ceylon teas

Signature Earl Grey

A rich dark Keemun tea blended with the oil of the citrus fruit Bergamot and combined with delicate lavender flowers to produce an aromatic floral blend.

English Breakfast

Bright and full of flavour, perfect to refresh and invigorate

Lady Grey

Seville orange, lemon and bergamot flavours make this a lighter Earl Grey

Pure Assam

Deep amber tea provides a rich, full-bodied flavour

Pure Darjeeling

Character of this light tea is likened to the muscatel grape

Pure Ceylon

Bright, amber tea that is refreshing and thirst-quenching

Rituals Regional Teas

Supplement of £6.00

Fairy Ladies Golden Rings

From the Tai Pu mountains in Fujian Province of China, this unique tea is hand produced in just one village.

Keemun

One of the most popular teas in the world, tea from the eastern province of Anhu. This traditional mellow Chinese black tea has a distinctive coppery-red colour liquor that has a gentle and slightly nutty flavour.

Kenyan

A full bodied tea with a deep orange colour and an invigorating flavour. To sustain an explosion of flavour, this tea is produced in a modern fashion, somewhat differently to traditional whole leaf teas.

Japanese Green Sencha

From the Shizuoka region of Japan, the leaves have been steamed to producing a wonderfully coloured deep green tea, with an intoxicating fresh cut grass aroma to the silky tea leaves.

A Minimum charge of £ 15.00 per person applies
A discretionary service charge of 12.5% will be added to your bill. All prices are inclusive of VAT.

Rituals Oriental Teas

Supplement of £6.50

Chinese - High Mountain Oolong

Exquisite intense, velvet smooth flavour with a fresh, fragrant floral blossom character.

Long Jing Green

Long Jing or 'Dragonwell' green tea is recognised as one of China's '10 famous teas'. It is produced in misty hills around the famous West Lake, near the city of Hangzhou, in the Dragonwell Springs area. Commonly produced by hand, the leaf has a long, flat appearance creating a rounded full-bodied green tea which tastes sweet initially, with a slightly savoury aftertaste of 'popped corn'.

Puerh

Puerh comes from the Yunnan province of China and has a very distinct taste due to its unique process of fermentation and ageing. Despite its dark colour, it is actually a green tea which is wetted and, left to ferment and oxidize then cooked in a hut over a fire until dry and left to age for up to 50 years.

White Silver Tips

Subtle, fresh and sweet peachy in character from the youngest unopened buds. This rare tea is sought after for its antioxidant qualities.

Floral Teas from the Far-East

Supplement of £7.50

Flowering Osmanthus Tea

Sweet and soothing flowering green tea hand tied around an explosive orange osmanthus flower

Flowering Jasmine and Lily Tea

Light and smooth green tea hand tied around flame orange lily petals and sweet jasmine flowers

Our Teas

Twinings

Since they first started business in 1706, Twinings have been using their blending expertise to create high quality teas that now, nearly 300 years later, are enjoyed in over 100 different countries across the world. Twinings' founder Thomas Twining first began selling tea from premises on The Strand in London, which remains today. Word of this exotic, new drink quickly spread and soon Twinings' tea was de rigueur - eighteenth century English novelist Jane Austen and Chares II Earl Grey were fans.

Twinings have developed a range of the finest teas and Infusions sourced from around the globe to bring you 'Twinings Tea Rituals'. From handmade teas to rare Silver Tips, this range offers only the very finest teas, sourced and blended with Twinings unique expertise.
